

Pumai is a beautiful place in Borneo.
It's quiet and there are lots of trees.
It's a good home for the orangutans.
Danny Miller lives there too, with his mum.
She works at the Pumai Orangutan Reserve.

Danny loves the orangutans.
His favourite is Gloria. She's only two years old.
She hasn't got a mother or a father.
Every morning, before school,
Danny gives her some milk and a banana.
